Doctoral Days
Educational Sciences and Perspectives of Education

October 2-3, 2026, Osijek, Republic of Croatia

Dear colleagues,

We invite you to the scientific conference Doctoral Days 2026: Educational Sciences and Perspectives of Education, organized for the sixth consecutive year by the Faculty of Education at Josip Juraj Strossmayer University of Osijek.

This year's conference focuses on examining the development of education and development through education (of individuals and society) by intertwining different scientific approaches from the fields of social sciences, humanities, and interdisciplinary areas. The conference is organized with the aim of establishing constructive dialogue among doctoral students for the exchange of theoretical insights and current research on the development of education from various scientific perspectives.

Interested doctoral students may apply to participate with an oral presentation or without a presentation. The conference is planned to be held on-site at the Faculty premises exclusively for presenters, while participants without presentations will be able to attend online in real time.

Application	Deadlines	Links/Contact
Participation with presentation and abstract submission:	April 30, 2026	APPLICATION FORM – PRESENTATION
Application for online participation without presentation:	September 1, 2026	APPLICATION FORM – PARTICIPATION

All accepted abstracts will be published in the Book of Abstracts. Doctoral students are expected to participate individually with only one abstract. Participants are encouraged to submit their full papers for publication in the Faculty's journals (Life and School and Pannoniana).

The official language of the conference is Croatian or English.

There is no participation fee for either type of participation.
